

Purchasing Additional Service Credit

Alabama state law allows active members to purchase service credit for certain types of past employment. Purchasing service credit may increase the amount of your retirement income or allow you to retire sooner.

To purchase service credit, the member must ensure proper certification of the service. Request the appropriate certification form by contacting the TRS or downloading the form from our Web site. Have the form completed by an official record keeper where the service was performed. Then return the completed certification form to the TRS.

Military Service in the U.S. Armed Forces

- During an active member's first year of participation in the TRS, he or she may purchase up to four years of eligible military service provided the member has had no previous period of eligibility.

Eligible service includes honorable service in the U.S. armed forces for which the member is not currently receiving service retirement benefits from any branch of the U.S. armed forces, or from any other source other than benefits received exclusively as payment for a service connected disability.

- The next opportunity to purchase military service will be after accumulating 10 years of creditable service and will cost substantially more.

Sources of Funds

Members of the TRS who are purchasing any type of permissible service as outlined previously in this section may do so by rolling funds from tax deferred savings plans such as tax sheltered annuities (IRC 403(b)), governmental deferred compensation plans (IRC 457) like RSA-1, IRAs (IRC 408), or qualified plans (IRC 401). This includes funds in your RSA-1 account.

The member may have these funds transferred directly from the other plan to the TRS and avoid paying tax at the time of transfer, any early distribution penalty, or required withholding. The necessary form will be provided to members when they are notified of the cost for any service purchases.

Note: Eligibility for and cost of all service purchases are based on the provisions of law in effect at the time of purchase.
